Good morning Mark,

I am glad you thought to email prior to arriving on campus for classes. Your case needs to be resolved prior to you returning to campus. You still need to go through the COS hearing whatever the outcome of your court process. The last communication we had with you was back in May (communication copied into this message) where you were provided an extension to complete and return your Statement of Understanding (SOU) with the understanding that you needed to resolve your COS case prior to returning to Dartmouth.

Your SOU and allegation packet is attached with this email. Once you complete and return this SOU we can move ahead with next steps in resolving your case, including scheduling a hearing date. If you need a full COS hearing you will be assigned the first available hearing date in September.

Our office did not receive any documentation from your attorney regarding your court case. If this is something you would like us to have please send it along ASAP via email or fax (fax number is in the signature line).

If you have any questions please be in touch with our office or your Undergraduate Dean.

Sincerely,
Adam

Good Afternoon, Mark –
Thanks for your email. I cannot allow you an indefinite delay on responding to the allegations while continuing as a student at Dartmouth. You may finish out the Spring term, but you will need to resolve the judicial case prior to returning to Dartmouth. If you have any questions, please reach out to our office or your Undergraduate Dean.
Sincerely,

Subject: Request

Dear Katharine Strong,

I'm writing to ask for a delay in my judicial proceedings here at Dartmouth until after I have completed my court proceedings outside of Dartmouth. My lawyers have told me not to discuss my case with anyone, and therefore I feel I would be violating their advice by filling out the statement of understanding. I am happy to stay in contact with you in regards to where things stand in terms of my process outside of Dartmouth if I am allowed this delay. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Best wishes,
Mark Anderson
